

Ways to Pray Specifically in the Wake of a Terrorist Attack

Pray for Law enforcement:

- Good, solid intelligence and information
- Plenty of manpower and resources
- Good coordination between agencies, including international

Pray for Medical Personnel:

- Physical and emotional strength
- All the human resources, equipment and supplies needed
- Wisdom to quickly assess individual situations, steady hands & calming presence

Pray for the Injured:

- Provide the help they need quickly
- Surround them with believers who will pray and encourage them
- Overwhelm them with Your peace and ease their fear

Pray for the Families:

- Comfort for the families of those killed
- Support for the families of those injured
- Peace for the families of those waiting to hear
- Good communication about the situation to all families

Pray for World Leaders:

- Leaders around the world would rise up against this evil
- Ability to set politics aside
- Receive wise counsel from wise people
- Leaders around the world would unite in a global effort against terrorism

Pray for Rescue workers and First Responders:

- Protection as they work, physical strength, and emotional stamina
- Good coordination and communication in the efforts
- They would provide a strong, calming presence to those they encounter
- Sustenance, like food and water, they need to keep going

Pray for the Terrorists:

- Any left alive involved in this attack would be caught
- Those on the fringe would give information to authorities
- Any other related plots would be exposed
- For God to convict them and bring them to repentance
- For God to draw them to Jesus
